

The

CONNECTOR

A BIT OF HISTORY

Presidents' Day is an American holiday celebrated on the third Monday in February. Originally established in 1885 in recognition of President George Washington, it is still officially called "Washington's Birthday" by the federal government. Traditionally celebrated on February 22—Washington's actual day of birth—the holiday became popularly known as Presidents' Day after it was moved as part of 1971's Uniform Monday Holiday Act, an attempt to create more three-day weekends for the nation's workers. While several states still have individual holidays honoring the birthdays of Washington, Abraham Lincoln and other figures, Presidents' Day is now popularly viewed as a day to celebrate all U.S. presidents, past and present.

IN MEMORY OF

JAMES THOMAS TIERNAN
SEP 29, 1913 — DEC 30, 2013

Jim was born in Lee Township, Iowa and died here in San Diego, CA. Jim was proud of his 20-year career in the military. He joined the U.S. Army in 1941, serving in W.W. II, AND the Korean Conflict; then later helping train soldiers for Viet Nam. Jim was a devoted volunteer for the V.A. Hospital for 25 years. He was also extremely well-traveled.

There was no problem that Jim could not solve, which suited him well during his tenure working on the Apollo Program for NASA. Jim was an incredible storyteller and the consummate gentleman.

In 2010, Jim married Alice Pilcher. She survives him, and is still a resident of Kearney Lodge. He is also survived by two sisters-in-law, and twelve nieces and nephews.

We extend our sincere sympathy to the family and friends of James T. Tiernan.

8. Forecast is no less reliable than the National Weather Service.
7. At least one of them critters is bound to see things your way.
6. Valentine's Day is too depressing for nerds.
5. Unlike the Easter bunny, he keeps his dirty Paws outside.
4. As they used to say on radio: "The Shadow knows".
3. It's fun to say "Punxsutawney".
2. If a rodent can bring us an early spring, more power to him.

QUOTES from FIRST LADIES

The greater part of our happiness or misery depends on our dispositions, and not our circumstances. — Martha Washington

The earth is mankind's ultimate haven, our blessed terra firma. When it trembles and gives way beneath our feet, it's as though one of God's cheques has bounced. — Abigail Smith Adams

Clouds and darkness surround us, yet Heaven is just, and the day of triumph will surely come, when justice and truth will be vindicated. — Mary Todd Lincoln

I have only one real hobby — my husband. — Florence Mabel Kling DeWolfe Harding

The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams. — Anna Eleanor Roosevelt

You always admire what you really understand. — Anna Eleanor Roosevelt

If you bungle raising your children, I don't think whatever else you do well matters very much. — Jacqueline Kennedy

There are many little ways to enlarge your child's world. Love of books is the best of all. — Jacqueline Kennedy

The First Lady is an unpaid public servant elected by one person — her husband. — Claudia "Lady Bird" Taylor Johnson

Children are likely to live up to what you believe of them. — Claudia "Lady Bird" Taylor Johnson

Art is the window to man's soul. Without it, he would never be able to see beyond his immediate world; nor could the world see the man within. — Claudia "Lady Bird" Taylor Johnson

A woman is like a tea bag, you can not tell how strong she is until you put her in hot water. — Nancy Reagan

Never lose sight of the fact that the most important yardstick of your success will be how you treat other people — your family, friends and co-workers and even strangers you meet along the way. — Barbara Bush

HOT CHOCOLATE VARIATION

To add the taste of hazelnut, use Nutella® instead of cocoa. Combine 1 1/2 cups of milk and 1/3 cup of Nutella® in a small pan. Over medium-high heat, bring to a simmer, whisking until smooth. Makes two teacup servings; top with dollops of whipped cream.

AVOID USING THESE PLANTS

The following plants are aggressive, destructive and/or invasive in San Diego, city and county.

1. Ornamental fig trees, Ficus species. They have destructive surface roots; even the smaller species.
2. Perennial morning glory vine, Ipomea. It is aggressive. Do not mistake this variety with the smaller, annual morning glory vine.
3. Pampas grass Cortaderia selloana, is invasive and takes over. Native plants cannot compete with it and die out. The food source and habitat of native birds, bees, reptiles, mammals, and other creatures disappears.
4. English and Algerian Ivy, Hedera helix, Hedera canariensis, are aggressive and invasive. Ivy is not a well-behaved or welcome ground cover in San Diego County.
5. Ice plant, Carpobrotus edulis, is also invasive and destroys habitat. It also causes other problems. You have probably seen bare hillsides where ice plant got so heavy that it slid down in vast sheets, pulling the hillsides with it. Under the green surface is a thick accumulation of dead, dry leaves and stems that do and have burned in wildfires.
6. Mexican feather grass, Mexican needle grass, Stipa tenuissima (Nassella tenuissima), are other aggressive plants.
7. Mexican fan palm, Washingtonia robusta, should be pulled out as soon as you see them. In wildlife habitat, this invasive palm takes over, replacing the native plants and destroying important resources for animals.

These are all beautiful plants, but not the right plants for San Diego. There are many non-aggressive, non-destructive, non-invasive plants to fill your needs for ground-covers, trees, vines, bushes, and flowers that are also beautiful and drought-resistant.

GARDEN TIPS

- QUICK SAUCERS for POTS — Do you need just the right-sized tray or saucer to catch excess water from your pots? Some Greek yogurt comes in containers with clear plastic lids that, at 5¼-inches-in diameter, fit perfectly under small-to-medium-sized pots. Do you need an extra-sturdy tray? Use two or more lids stacked together.
 - A BEAUTIFUL BACKYARD — Three things make a garden inviting: colors, a curving path, and a charming water feature.
 - CHOOSE A COLOR THEME — Warm colors, such as yellow, orange, chartreuse and red, brighten any area and add big impact. Choosing a color palette is a great way to unify your garden. A few blues and purples make a great contrast with warm colors. The key is having more of your chosen color scheme than anything else.
 - PLAN A PLEASING PATH — A casually curving flagstone walk-way adds a welcoming look to your garden.
 - JUST ADD WATER — A water feature adds relaxing sights and sounds to the garden, whether you're enjoying it from the window inside your home or outside up close.
