The Best Yard selection for the month of August is unit #92! This charcoal gray house is surrounded by dark green artificial grass (a great water saver) with white porch railings, a short white picket fence and a tiny white decorative fence outlining the edge of the lawn—all providing a pleasing color contrast. Five round and two square decorative pots across the front of the lawn hold drought resistant plants; and the American flag provides a patriotic touch. Nicely done, 92!

Respectfully submitted by Wendy Hunter
