It does not matter how slowly you go as long as you do not stop. — Confucius

EXCERPT FROM A 1939 BOOK

The fog was very thick, and the Chief Officer of the tramp steamer was peering over the side of the bridge. Suddenly, to his intense surprise, he saw a man leaning over a rail, only a few yards away.

"You confounded fool!" he roared. "Where the devil do you think your ship's going? Don't you know I've got the right of way?"

Out of the gloom came a saronic voice:

"This ain't no blinkin' ship, guv'nor. This 'ere's a light'ouse!"

ASSORTED QUOTES and SAYINGS

- In the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter, and sharing of pleasures. For in the dew of little things, does the heart find its morning and is refreshed.— Khalil Gibran
- You can make more friends in two months by becoming more interested in other people than you can in two years by trying to get people interested in you. — Dale Carnegie
- Falling in love is not at all the most stupid thing that people do — but gravitation cannot be held responsible for it. — Albert Einstein
- I've learned that you should always leave loved ones with loving words. It may be the last time you see them. I've learned that heroes are people who do what has to be done when it needs to be done, regardless of the consequences. I've learned that true friendship continues to grow even over the longest distance. Same goes for true love.
- In teaching others we teach ourselves. It is never too late to be what you might have been.

- Do not confine your children to your own learning, for they were born in another time.

- "The problem with getting quotes off the Internet is, you can never tell if they are genuine."

QUOTES by Ogden Nash (1902-1971)

- The only place where success comes before work is in the dictionary.
- If you don't want to work you have to work to earn enough money so that you won't have to work.
- Indoors or out, no one relaxes in March, that month of wind and taxes, the wind will presently disappear, the taxes last us all the year.
