QUOTES

We will open the book. Its pages are blank. We are going to put words on them ourselves. The book is called Opportunity and its first chapter is New Year's Day.

— Edith Lovejoy Pierce

We spend January 1 walking through our lives, room by room, drawing up a list of work to be done, cracks to be patched. Maybe this year, to balance the list, we ought to walk through the rooms of our lives . . . not looking for flaws, but for potential.

— Ellen Goodman

THOUGHTS

Contentment begins with having fewer wants.

The glory of life is to love, not to be loved; to give, not to get; to serve, not to be served.

A limited situation may afford the soul a chance to grow.

2. No Committee reports.
3. During floor discussion, it was suggested that a substantial monetary prize be offered to Shuffleboard winners to attract more participation. Shuffleboard is tentatively set to resume in the spring.
4. It was also brought up that the word needs to be spread that our monthly meetings are conducted in a friendly manner, and with the officers we have had for the past 2 ½ years, good things have been accomplished for the park (i.e. YOU, the residents.)
5. Regarding the "in-park" street signs: the question was raised why there were not signs at both ends of the cross streets. Phase 2 will be coming up, and these signs will be added.
6. Joe brought in some buttons he made for the "Drive Five" campaign. A motion was made by Wendy Hunter that money from our treasury be used to make more (buttons) so they can be distributed throughout the Park; seconded by Dee Cowley. All in attendance approved the motion.

A FEW WORDS REGARDING THE 5 MPH SPEED LIMIT IN KEARNEY LODGE

A Resident's contribution to consider.

Occasionally a resident will complain about kids playing in the streets of Kearney Lodge. The complaint is valid and thoughtful, in fact, it demonstrates a genuine concern for the children of our residents. And the complaint in itself makes the case for the five-mile per hour speed limit here in the Park.

First of all, it was only this past summer when a driver came into contact with a playing child. Fortunately, there was no injury, but it sheds light on a fact of Kearney Lodge life.

Secondly, the children have no other place to play or ride their bikes than in and around the streets near where they live. There is no playground or other facility that would allow the kids to fulfill their job description as players. And most of the tiny yards behind our houses don't have enough space for even a Ping-Pong table.

Also, it is quite uplifting to see some of our young ones actually playing outside and getting exercise instead of sitting in from of computer games during all their free time.

Some may suggest that the kids go over to Hickman Field, a trip that requires crossing the busy and hastily-travelled Hickman Field Road. The danger there is fifty times that of the streets of our own neighbor-hood, and no parents would feel at ease watching their child head off to run that gauntlet.

And speaking of being at ease, rolling along in your car at 5 mph is a chance to relax before — or after being in the rat race out there beyond the place we call home.

The five-mile an hour speed limit is not so much a command as it is an appeal to everyone who drives through Kearney Lodge to think of ourselves as custodians of the Park's children as well as protectors of our own and everyone else's safety.

Thank you. The Connector — in service to the Park and all who live here.

THOUGHTS

MORE THOUGHTS FROM A K.L. RESIDENT:

- A settled score is never settled.
- Frugal can date generosity, but only stingy keeps company with cheap.
- It is often wiser for me to choose my right to silence than to exercise my freedom of speech.
- A clenched fist holds not love.
- When I live in my heart, I am always home.

THOUGHTS RECEIVED VIA EMAIL:

THE POSITIVE SIDE OF LIFE...

Living on Earth is expensive, but it does include a free trip around the sun every year.

Happiness comes through doors you didn't even know you left open.

Ever notice that the people who are late are often much jollier than the people who have to wait for them?

You may be only one person in the world, but you may also be the world to one person.

Some mistakes are too much fun to only make once.

Don't cry because it's over; smile because it happened.

We could learn a lot from crayons: some are sharp, some are pretty, some are dull, some have weird names, and all are different colors, but they all exist very nicely in the same box.

A truly happy person is one who can enjoy the scenery on a detour.

DID YOU KNOW . . . MAILBOX TIP

When attaching a mailbox to your house, be sure that it can be accessed easily from your side-walk, steps, or porch. Because city mail carriers often shoulder heavy bags, put your mailbox about 4' from the ground. That way, your carrier won't have to stretch or bend to reach it. And remember to keep the path to your mailbox clear in inclement weather.

NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS 2014

People claim that most New Year Resolutions last about a day; maybe a few weeks. Some sturdy souls keep them for a couple months.

1. GET IN SHAPE – It appears that many New Year Resolutions revolve around fitness, eating habits, addictions, or losing weight.
2. CONNECT WITH FRIENDS AND FAMILY – It will revive the warmth of the personal touch.
3. REUSE AND RECYCLE – We are more and more conscious about our surroundings and ecology. We could step towards a greener planet Earth, including conservation of Natural Resources.
4. LIMIT ONLINE ACTIVITIES – The less time you spend online, the more time you would have for yourself and your loved ones so that you can “go out and play”. This would help you keep Resolution #1!
5. BE KIND AND CARING TO THE WORLD – Begin at home by loving thy neighbors. Just try to do something for those who are less fortunate. Every small measure counts.
6. MANAGEMENT MANTRA – Learn to manage your time, organize your habitat, and also tame the urge to splurge by mastering money management.
7. TAKE CALCULATED RISKS – You won't regret trying something you have always wanted to do. But be sure to do it safely!
8. SHOP LOCAL – This is the best way to help out local farmers and artisans; an indirect way of promoting small scale and cottage industry.
9. MAKE MORE TIME FOR THE FINER THINGS IN LIFE – Enrich your life by connecting to art, books, music, theatre and of course, Nature!
10. THINK BEFORE YOU SPEAK – Many regrets are caused because we let a harsh word slip out before giving it proper thought!
11. THINK BEFORE ACTING – A thoughtless action is only for mindless fools.
12. DON'T LET YOURSELF STAGNATE – Look for change and something new. Travelling and learning new things are the easiest ways of keeping open the window to your mind.

NEW YEAR POEM

What can be said in New Year rhymes,
That's not been said a thousand times?
The new years come, the old years go.
We know we dream, we dream we know.
We rise up laughing with the light,
We lie down weeping with the night.
We hug the world until it stings,
We curse it then and sigh for wings.
We live, we love, we woo, we wed.
We wreath our prides, we sheet our dead.
We laugh, we weep, we hope, we fear.
And that's the burden of a year.

Let this coming year be better than all the others. Vow to do some of the things you have always wanted to do but could not find the time. Call up a forgotten friend.
