HAPPY MOTHERS DAY

Memorial Day 2009
Observed Monday, May 25th

EASY COME, EASY GROW

Tips for an easy-care yard.

If life were a fairy tale, gardens would stay green and gorgeous all year long without watering, weeding, pruning or pampering. The garden of your dreams can be yours with these 10 easy-care tips.

Not all pretty gardens are neat rows of shrubs and sprawling beds of cascading flowers. To cut down on garden upkeep, why not include a paved patio or gravel path? After all, when's the last time your driveway needed to be watered?

Use common sense. Remember those words of wisdom from your mother? They apply to planning a garden, too. Plant flowers near a faucet, keep your compost pile near your planting beds; anything to minimize trips across the yard. They may seem short, but they add up and take time.

Bigger is not always better. The smaller your garden, the fewer plants to care for. Don't go too tiny, but make it manageable. You can always expand later.

Space it out. If planting directions recommend leaving six inches between flowers, don't leave less. Your garden may seem bare at first, but it will fill in. Plant too closely now, and you'll be thinning, pruning, or even removing plants later. Think outside the (flower) box. Container gardening is easy and fun, but it can be time-consuming. Some potted plants need to be watered daily. Cut back on the number of containers in your garden, and you'll cut back on watering chores – guaranteed.

Mulch is a must.. Mulching is a great way to control weeds, keep soil moist, and improve the overall health of your plants. That means you spend less time weeding, watering and tending wilted blooms.

It's easy being evergreen. When planting trees and shrubs, choose evergreens over deciduous, which shed seasonally and need more pruning. That's more leaf-sweeping work.

Pick perennials. Perennials are perfect for an easy-care garden. They die back in winter and re-emerge in spring – no replanting necessary. Annuals, on the other hand, are planted every year.

Know your nursery. Every region is different, so the best recommendations for easy-care plants often come from a nearby garden center. Consider asking about drought-resistant plants.

Stick to your plan. When buying plants, you'll almost always see a colorful bloom that looks too good to pass up. But remember, you preplanned your shopping list for a reason. The blooms on that list are the ones that are best for your garden and lifestyle. So buy them and get planting. Then relax and enjoy your fresh, new, low-maintenance yard!

Beat the Rush.

A SIMPLE ANALOGY

An economics professor at Texas Tech said he had never failed a single student before but had, once, failed an entire class. That class had insisted that socialism worked and that no one would be poor and no one would be rich, a great equalizer. The professor then said OK, we will have an experiment in this class on socialism.

All grades would be averaged and everyone would receive the same grade so no one would fail and no one would receive an A. After the first test the grades were averaged and every-one got a B. The students who studied hard were upset and the students who studied little were happy.

But, as the second test rolled around, the students who studied little had studied even less and the ones who studied hard decided they wanted a free ride too; so they studied little. The second test average was a D! No one was happy. When the 3rd test rolled around, the average was an F.

The scores never increased as bickering, blame, name calling all resulted in hard feelings and no one would study for the benefit of anyone else. All failed, to their great surprise, and the professor told them that socialism would also ultimately fail because when the re-ward is great, the effort to succeed is great; but when government takes all rewards away; no one will try or want to succeed. It could NOT be any simpler than that...

QUOTES

Any person capable of angering you becomes your master; he can anger you only when you permit yourself to be disturbed by him.

— Epictetus (55-135 AD) Greek Philosopher

Virtue means doing the right thing, in relation to the right person, at the right time, to the right extent, in the right manner, and for the right purpose. Thus, to give money away is quite a simple task, but for the act to be virtuous, the donor must give to the right person, for the right purpose, in the right amount, in the right manner, and at the right time.

— Aristotle

Happiness is often the result of being too busy to be miserable.

— Unknown

I long to accomplish a great and noble task, but it is my chief duty to accomplish small tasks as if they were great and noble.

— Helen Keller (1880-1968) American Writer

Some people say I have attitude - maybe I do. But I think you have to. You have to believe in yourself when no one else does - that makes you a winner right there.

— Venus Williams US tennis champion

An army of sheep led by a lion would defeat an army of lions led by a sheep. — Arab proverb

HERE IN THIS HOUSE

I will never know the loneliness I hear
in the barks of the other dogs 'out there.'
I can sleep soundly, assured that when
I wake my world will not have changed.

I will never know hunger,
or the fear of not knowing if I'll eat.

I will not shiver in the cold,
or grow weary from the heat.

I will feel the sun's heat, and the rain's coolness,
and be allowed to smell all that can reach my nose.
My fur will shine, and never be dirty or matted.

Here in this house...

There will be an effort to communicate with me on my level.

I will be talked to and, even if I don't understand,
can enjoy the warmth of the words.

I will be given a name
so that I may know who I am among many.

My name will be used in joy,
and I will love the sound of it!

Here in this house...

I will never be a substitute for anything I am not.

I will never be used
to improve peoples' images of themselves.

I will be loved because I am who I am,
not someone's idea of who I should be.

I will never suffer for someone's anger,
impatience, or stupidity.

I will be taught all the things
need to know to be loved by all.

If I do not learn my lessons well,
hey will look to my teacher for blame.

Here in this house...

I can trust arms that hold, hands that touch...
knowing that, no matter what they do,
they do it for the good of me.

If I am ill, I will be doctored.

If scared, I will be calmed.

If sad, I will be cheered.

No matter what I look like, I will be considered beautiful and thought to be of value.

I will never be cast out because I am too old,
too ill, too unruly, or not cute enough.

My life is a responsibility, and not an afterthought.
I will learn that humans can almost, sometimes,
be as kind and as fair as dogs (and cats).

Here in this house...

I will belong. I will be home.

QUOTES: We on this continent should never forget that men first crossed the Atlantic not to find soil for their ploughs but to secure liberty for
their souls."
~ Robert J. McCracken

Liberty has never come from the government.
Liberty has always come from the subjects of it.
The history of liberty is a history of resistance.

~ Marilyn vos Savant, in Parade

EASY DEVEILED EGGS ~ Put cooked egg yolks in a zip lock bag. Seal the bag and mash the egg yolks until they are all broken up. Add your other favorite ingredients; reseal, and mash mixture to your liking. Cut a corner from the bag and squeeze the mixture into the egg white halves. Throw the bag away when you are done for easy clean up.

NEWSPAPER WEEDS AWAY ~ Start putting in your plants, work the nutrients in your soil. Wet newspapers, then put layers around the plants, overlapping pages as you go. Cover with mulch and forget about weeds among your newly-planted beauties. Weeds will grow through some gardening plastic, but not through wet newspapers.

FOG SEASON IS COMING ~ For foggy windshields, buy a chalkboard eraser and keep it in the glove box of your car. When the windows get fogged up, wipe them with the eraser! Works better than a cloth, according to my source!
