WORD TRIVIA FOR YOU — Submitted by Luis Chato Mañeru

We all know the word TIP in English. But how did it come about? Legend says a placard appeared a long time ago in an English pub that said: To Improve Performance = TIP. And that caught on!

'Twas the Month After Christmas

'Twas the month after Christmas and all through the house,
Nothing would fit me, not even a blouse.
The cookies I'd nibbled, the eggnog I'd taste.
All the holiday parties had gone to my waist.
When I got on the scales there arose such a number!
When I walked to the store (less a walk than a lumber).
I'd remember the marvelous meals I'd prepared;
The gravies and sauces and beef nicely rare,
The wine and the rum balls, the bread and the cheese
And the way I'd never said, "No thank you, please."
As I dressed myself in my husband's old shirt,
And prepared once again to do battle with dirt—
I said to myself, as I only can,
"You can't spend a winter disguised as a man!"
So, away with the last of the sour cream dip,
Get rid of the fruit cake, every cracker and chip,
Every last bit of food that I like must be banished,
Till all the additional ounces have vanished.
I won't have a cookie—not even a lick.
I'll want only to chew on a long celery stick.
I won't have hot biscuits, or corn bread, or pie,
I'll munch on a carrot and quietly cry.
I'm hungry, I'm lonesome, and life is a bore—
But isn't that what January is for?
Unable to giggle, no longer a riot.
Happy New Year to all and to all a good diet!

❄️ ❄️ ❄️ QUOTES ❄️ ❄️ ❄️

Our hearts grow tender with childhood memories and love of kindred, and we are better throughout the year for having, in spirit, become a child again at Christmas-time.
— Laura Ingalls Wilder

Christmas is not a time nor a season, but a state of mind.
To cherish peace and goodwill, to be plenteous in mercy,
is to have the real spirit of Christmas. — Calvin Coolidge

I have always thought of Christmas time, when it has come round, as a good time; a kind, forgiving, charitable time;
the only time I know of, in the long calendar of the year, when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely, and to think of people below them as if they really were fellow passengers to the grave, and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys.
— Charles Dickens

My idea of Christmas, whether old-fashioned or modern, is very simple: loving others. Come to think of it, why do we have to wait for Christmas to do that? — Bob Hope

Peace on earth will come to stay,
When we live Christmas every day. — Helen Steiner Rice

IF YOU SEE SOMETHING, SAY SOMETHING!

WORDS for the MONTH

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN LAY AND LIE

If you're someone who cares about writing and speaking carefully, your communication skills will be strengthened by keeping them straight, so here's the lowdown. Lay's most common meaning is "to place (something or someone) down in a flat position." Lie's corresponding meaning is "to be in a flat position on a surface." Lay is transitive; it requires that the verb have an object: there has to be a thing or person being placed: Lay it down. Lie, on the other hand, is intransitive. It's for something or someone moving on their own or something that's already in position: You can lie down there. You can lie there all day.

OTHER TENSES OF LAY AND LIE

That's tricky enough, but it gets worse when we start using the words beyond the present tense. Here's lay in context in tenses that show its principal forms:

- I was told to lay the book down.
- I laid it down as I have laid other books down.
- I am laying more books down now.

And here's lie:

- I was told to lie down.
- I lay down.
- I have lain here since.
- I'm still lying here.

Did you catch that? For lay, we have lay, laid, have laid, laying; for lie, we have lie, lay, have lain, lying. And then there's the unrelated verb meaning "to tell an untruth." That lie goes lie, lied, have lied, lying.

Yes, it's really that complicated. We apologize. If you want to brush up, focus on the present and past tenses — they do most of the work by far — and check the dictionary entries when you're not sure. And even if you are certain, give the other guy a break.

THOUGHT

So remember while December
Brings the only Christmas Day
In the year let there be Christmas
In the things we do and say
Wouldn't life be worth the living
Wouldn't dreams be coming true
If we kept the Christmas spirit
All the whole year through.

Presents PROPERTY Insurance For:

MOBILE & MANUFACTURED HOME INSURANCE

While most mobile home policies only cover your home for certain specified perils, Farmers policies cover most perils and offer options to customize your coverage.

With Dependable service you can rest easy knowing that your belongings are protected from a wide range of damages. Our platinum insurance package covers replacement cost for any covered loss, including fire. This ensures you receive a new mobile home if yours is destroyed. Theft and vandalism are also included in your coverage. The liability portion of your property policy covers you for instances in which you are legally obligated to pay for physical injuries to others, along with damages to their property, as well as certain types of non-Physical injuries.

Here are some examples of how little it can cost protect property and personal possessions!!!

$80,000 in coverage is only $30	$100,000 in coverage is only $36
$90,000 in coverage is only $34	$110,000 in coverage is only $40

BEST YARD of the MONTH

for NOVEMBER 2021 — #132.

The November Best Yard featured in this December issue is Unit #132. It is a beautiful, new,
double-wide, gray with white trim.

On the right side is a clean, concrete driveway. In the front, there is a small raised patio at the front entrance. A narrow, gravel stone path with light gray patio stones
leads from the driveway to the front steps.

The landscaping includes about a dozen drought-tolerant plants; some are planted in the ground and others in multi-colored containers.
The ground cover is brown, woodchip mulch, and the border along the street consists of bricks (three levels high).

On the left side is a small palm plant near the street. The rest is an unfinished dirt area leading to a small back yard.

The general set-up is attractive, clean, and weed-free. Very nicely done.

Ron Maurice, VP
